TOWN'S TIP TO STAY OPEN DESPITE CUTS

Father and son row for Robbie

AN ODIHAM boy has been honoured after his dad and older brother completed a 400-mile kayak challenge in his memory.

Mark Keville (left) and son Harry (right) finished their mammoth test on Sunday at Odiham Wharf after paddling the equivalent of a marathon a day for 15 consecutive days along canals and rivers in England.

The duo took to the water to help raise money for the hospital that helped care for 10-year-old Robbie, who tragically died from a brain tumour in February.

BASINGSTOKE'S tip is to remain open after the county council opted not to shut any of Hampshire's Household Waste Recyling Centre's (HWRC) on Friday.

By Christian Wilson

The future of each of Hampshire's 24 centres was put on notice in March as the authority discussed the possibility of shutting down up to 12 as part of council cuts.

But following a 10-week public consultation, which saw the majority of the 12,000 residents who participated reject the idea, Hampshire County Council has elected not to close any, including Basingstoke's HWRC in Wade Road.

Instead, the executive member for environment and transport, Rob Humby, has decided that each of the centres will now close on Thursday, and reduce opening times by two hours every day in a bid to save a total of £400,000.

Speaking about his decision on Friday, Cllr Humby said: "Hampshire's residents told us very clearly that their priority was to keep all the HWRCs open and I am genuinely pleased that we have found a way to make this happen.

"No stone has been left unturned in finding ways to make ends meet to keep every one of Hampshire's HWRCs open.

"The cost of dealing with waste is significant, and there is still much work to do to minimise waste individually and collectively, from our homes and at the HWRCs, and to reuse and recycle as efficiently as possible."

Wade Road's HWRC will now be open from 11am to 6pm until the start of next year, when the winter opening hours will see the centre shut at 4pm each day.

But the leader of Basingstoke's Liberal Democrats group has moved to condemn the council's decision to alter the centre's

Touching tribute to an 'exceptional' boy

THE ability to inspire others and leave a lasting legacy behind when you are gone is a feat that eludes most people.

But Odiham's Robbie Keville has managed to do just that, despite being given significantly less time than most.

Robbie was only 10-years-old when he passed away from a brain tumour in February, just four years after losing mum Kate to breast cancer.

After receiving his devastating diagnosis, the youngster amazed those around him by dedicating the final year of his life towards setting up children's cancer charity robbiesrally, in a bid to help others.

And dad Mark was full of praise when talking of his son – repeatedly using the word "exceptional" to describe him.

"I can honestly say that I've never met anyone else like him," said the father of two.

By Christian Wilson

"He was the baby of the family, but it was clear that he had a very good brain and was an exceptional little boy.

"He had an exceptional sense of humour and an irrepressible personality and energy, and he will definitely have a lasting legacy through his charity."

Mark and son Harry, 20, completed a remarkable achievement of their own in honour of Robbie on Sunday as they finished a 400-mile kayak challenge at Odiham Wharf.

The pair covered a marathon length each day for 15 days in a tandem kayak after setting off from Tewitfield in Lancashire and camping unsupported every night.

· Robbie Keville with Bear Grylls

Harry said: "It was definitely an experience because we were so close to each other the whole time.

"It was such a bonding experience and while I felt a wave of happiness and relief when we got there because it was so tough, weirdly I was sad that it was all over."

Mark added: "It's hard to find a sport where a 52-year-old and a 20-year-old can be reasonably matched, but luckily we have a strong sense of humour in our family."

The father and son team have so far raised around £18,000 of their £28,000 target, with all the proceeds set to go to Southampton Hospital Charity, who treated Robbie.

Dad Mark opted to name the challenge Robbie's Row, in honour of his son's wish that the names of all the fundraising events for robbiesrally begin with an R.

Among those to be touched by the youngster's personality was charity patron and TV adventurer Bear Grylls.

He said: "Robbie was such an inspiration – his love of both life and people touched everyone he met.

"His spirit lives on encouraging those going through tough times to see sunshine where there is rain and hope where there is loss."

· Mark Keville and son Harry have completed their 400-mile kayak across England

Harry added: "It's been very emotional and very difficult.

"But when something terrible goes wrong and you go through tragedies, strangely you do get positives, and it's important to learn from it.

"Everything that has happened has certainly brought our whole family closer together."

Public to have say on infrastructure levy

RESIDENTS, businesses and community groups are being invited to give their views on proposals to set a charge on new development in the borough.

The funds would be used to pay for community facilities and infrastructure in Basingstoke as part of the borough council's Community Infrastructure Levy (CIL).

Transport, school and sport facility improvement would also be impacted by the CIL, with the council set to launch a public consultation from August 8 to September 26.

Currently, the authority only receives money from developers for facilities specifically related to larger scale development schemes.

The new levy would raise funding to go into a 'pot' that could be used for bigger schemes.

The CIL would play a significant role in supporting Basingstoke and Deane's local plan to build 850 homes each year until 2029, with a target date for the levy to be adopted set for next May.

The borough council's cabinet member for planning and infrastructure, Mark Ruffell, said: "The council's priority is to ensure that the right infrastructure is in place to support new and existing residents of the borough and ensure we continue to provide affordable housing for those who might otherwise not be able to afford them.

"Our approach to bringing forward the Community Infrastructure Levy reflects this priority, as well as the need to continue to deliver much needed homes for our residents."

Council unites in support of borough's EU residents

BASINGSTOKE and Deane's council has come together as one to send a strong message out to EU residents living in the borough that they want them to stay.

By Christian Wilson

Each of the 54 members in attendance at a meeting of full council last Thursday put their political allegiances to one side for the night to support the motion from Basingstoke's Labour group.

The future of the near 5,500 EU residents living across the borough was put in some doubt following the historic Brexit decision by UK citizens on June 23, with many left feeling "anxiety" as 52 per cent of Basingstoke residents voted Leave.

But following last week's unanimous decision, a letter will now be sent from council leader Clive Sanders to new Prime Minister Theresa May, expressing the authority's opinion that migrants from the EU should be allowed to stay in the UK.

Brookvale and Kings Furlong councillor, Michael Westbrook, put forward the motion and told the Observer that he hoped the result "sends a reassuring message to our residents".

Speaking at the meeting, he said: "We all know someone from the EU, who does the same job as us, lives on the same street, and whose children go to the same school as ours.

"How does it make us feel that our friends, neighbours and workmates might have to leave the country?

"They are a part of our community and deserve better."

The UK Census from 2011 shows that 5,489 EU residents live in Basingstoke and Deane – 3.3 per cent of its 167,799 population.

And the Liberal Democrats' councillor for Whitchurch, Keith Watts, was adamant that it is a "matter of humanity and loyalty" that the people who "committed themselves" to the area should be allowed to stay.

He added: "I can honestly say that I'm heartbroken that my two great grandchildren won't be growing up in the prosperous, influential, and open country they were born into.

"You can't negotiate with people's lives the way you negotiate with turnips."

Conservative councillor for Rooksdown, Simon Bound, added: "As believers of democracy, it's more than fair to say that we are all Leavers now, and we should all support this motion in its entirety."

A number of hate crime incidents have been reported both locally and nationally in the weeks following the referendum, although independent Basing councillor and Vote Leave campaigner Onnalee Cubitt was anxious not to see all Brexit voters tarnished with the same brush.

She added: "I absolutely support the motion, but to accuse all of the 52 per cent who voted to leave the EU as being racist is offensive."

• Whitchurch councillor Keith Watts said he was still "heartbroken" by the UK's decision to leave the European Union

Missing teen

OLD BASING: Police have launched a public appeal after a teenage girl from Old Basing went missing last week.

Nobody has seen 14-year-old Krysal Browne since 2.10pm last Tuesday when she was known to be at Milkingpen Lane.

She is described as white, has long dark hair, and is around 5ft 2ins tall.

Anyone who has seen Krysal since last Tuesday is urged to call police on 101.

Internet boost

BASINGSTOKE AND DEANE: Oakley and Old Basing will be among the next 30 communities from across the UK to benefit from a broadband boost, it was revealed this week.

Homes and businesses across the country have been voting on who should benefit from Virgin Media's 'Supercharging Local Communities' initiative since February.

The move will see Oakley and Old Basing receive ultrafast broadband and entertainment improvements.

Virgin Media executive director Neil Bartholomew said: "We are delighted to be supercharging these Hampshire villages.

"It shows that ultrafast broadband and top-notch TV isn't just for big cities."

Tip stays open, but with shorter opening hours

opening times – insisting that the change would increase queues by 12.5 per cent.

Cllr Gavin James said: "This is a desperate attempt to tide things over until further cuts after county council elections in May next year.

"The county council had around 12,000 responses plus petitions making clear that people don't want sites closed, but that doesn't mean they want shorter opening hours and extra bureaucracy.

"The Conservatives want to close all sites until 11am, even though they didn't consult on this option and their own figures show 10am-11am is one of the busiest times of the day for use of the sites."

Other changes will see people charged to dispose of soil, rubble, plasterboard and asbestos at the centres from October 1, while residents from outside the county will now have to pay £2 per visit.

This decision follows the release of plans from West Berkshire Council to stop people from Basingstoke and Deane using its centres after Hampshire decided not to pay a £200,000 payment to the authority for the privilege.

A number of residents from across the borough use the HWRCs in Newbury and Padworth, due to the distance to Wade Road, with the borough council labelling the block from West Berkshire as a "cross border waste war".

But Cllr Humby moved quickly to dismiss this suggestion, saying: "The reality is that this issue is as far from being a 'waste war' as it could possibly be.

"I understand residents' concerns and we are working closely with our neighbouring Waste Disposal Authority (WDA) in West Berkshire to investigate options.

"As the WDA for Hampshire, we are best placed to work with neighbouring authorities on longer term solutions for the area."

Neighbourhood plan approved for Overton

CONTROVERSIAL plans to shape future development in Overton have been approved by the borough council.

Councillors narrowly voted to adopt a neighbourhood plan for the village by 33 votes to 20 at last Thursday night's meeting of full council.

The move will see 150 new homes built across Overton, after 53 per cent of residents backed the plans in a tight referendum on June 23.

Four sites have been allocated for housing as part of the neighbourhood plan, including proposals to build 70 houses to the south of Two Gate Lane and 55 more west of Sapley Playing Field.

And after seeing such a closely contested referendum vote, councillor for Overton, Laverstoke and Steventon, Colin Phillimore, expressed his fear that the plan would cause a divide in the village.

He said: "There have been serious mistakes made that many feel strongly about and I'm afraid that this poorly constructed plan has split our community.

"I don't want to see my neighbourhood divided, with neighbour against neighbour.

"While it says 150 houses, the minute we lose our five-year land supply, the developers will be circling like vultures."

Leaders clash over council shake-up

THE leader of Basingstoke's council has slammed the county council for pressing ahead with a "blinkered" public consultation into plans to form a countywide 'mega-unitary' authority.

By Christian Wilson

Hampshire County Council started the process yesterday in order to investigate how residents want local government to function in their area.

Leader of the authority, Roy Perry, has publicly given his backing to a proposal to replace the county council and Hampshire's 11 district councils with one single combined authority.

• Clive Sanders

For the next eight weeks, the public will be consulted on the idea, which is seen by Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council as a reaction to both its plans to form a combined authority with five other councils, and a separate Solent deal for councils on the coast.

Leader Clive Sanders said: "It is sad that the county seems to have become obsessed with defending their own organisation against what they see as a threat from the Solent authorities.

"The unfortunate consequence may be serious and negative effects for the people of Basingstoke and Deane.

"Pressing ahead now, without involving or working with any other councils on a consultation, which is biased and ill-informed because of its blinkered perspective, is a waste of tens of thousands of pounds of public funds."

The county council claims that forming a unitary authority would save more than £40million a year – although this is currently being investigated by a comprehensive study commissioned by Basingstoke's council.

But with the results of the review expected in October, Cllr Sanders questioned Hampshire's rush to launch a "premature" consultation.

He said: "The questions raised will only have to be considered again in a few months' time once we have a better evidence base and a more balanced picture to put to residents.

"We have made our case to the county council but they have chosen not to listen.

"I hope they may reconsider and join with us in working towards finding the best solution for the residents we both serve."

Despite the criticism however, county council leader Roy Perry was adamant that the public play a part in deciding the best way to devolve powers down from the top to local government.

"Before any changes are agreed for Hampshire, I am determined to listen first and decide later – not the other way around," said Cllr Perry.

"We have always been a staunch advocate of the two-tier local government system and have worked to engage with Hampshire's 11 district councils on our proposals and encourage them to join us in our consultation.

"Unfortunately, it hasn't been possible to reach an agreement with them, but we hope that all the districts will engage with this exercise, in the interests of the communities they serve."

Cyber attack warning for residents

A HOME Office-run campaign is urging people across Hampshire to always download the latest software to fight cybercrime.

Cyber Streetwise has pointed to the latest Government stats, from Ispos MORI, that reveal 68 per cent of people from the south east don't get the latest updates for their phone and 64 per cent don't for their computer.

Software and app updates contain vital upgrades that protect devices from viruses and hackers, and are viewed as the most important action people can take to protect themselves form cybercrime.

These can range from identity theft and fraud to cyberterrorism, with Hampshire Constabulary pleading with the public to take a few minutes out of their day to protect themselves.

Head of Investigation Command, Detective Chief Superintendent Ben Snuggs, said: "Cybercrimes pose an immediate threat to the public we serve, some of whom do not always understand the increasing risks to their personal lives and professional livelihoods.

"Software updates may take a few minutes, but the added security could save you from becoming a victim."

Familiar face ready to cook up a food frenzy

FOOD fanatics are set to be served up a treat when a familiar face leads Basingstoke's annual cooking festival this weekend.

By Christian Wilson

Around 4,500 people from the town attended last year's Taste at the Top of Town event to learn some culinary tips from celebrity chef Jean-Christophe Novelli.

And Basingstoke will set the bar high once again for Sunday's showpiece, with TV chef Brian Turner CBE this time the man tasked with cooking up a food frenzy in the historic heart of the town.

Famous for his time on Ready Steady Cook, Saturday Kitchen, A Taste of Britain and My Life on a Plate, Brian will wow the crowds by creating summer-themed watering dishes in front of the baying public in the food theatre.

Brian, also the president of the Royal Academy of Culinary Arts, said: "I'm really looking forward to coming to Basingstoke for Taste at the Top of Town.

"I'll be cooking up some simple, tasty, summer recipes live in the food theatre using fresh produce from local suppliers and showing you how easy it can be to work with different ingredients.

"I look forward to seeing [everyone] there!"

Joining Brian for cookery demonstrations will be award-winning chef Gordon Stott from the The Sun Inn at Dummer, Tania Casey from Broughton Water Buffalo, and Paulo Gonclaves, from the town's Portuguese Ponto De Encontro Café.

Taste at the Top of Town will take place from 10am to 5pm in Market Place, and will demonstrate the best foods produced and farmed from across the county as part of Hampshire Fare's Food Festival.

In addition to watching the chefs cook up a culinary storm, foodie fans will also be able to sample local food and drink, while visitors of all ages will be entertained by street theatre acts Plunge Boom's Allotment Show and The Hungry Chefs.

Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council deputy leader, Terri Reid, said: "We are delighted to welcome the wonderfully talented chef Brian Turner to this year's Taste at the Top of Town.

"He is sure to impress the audience with his delicious dishes using seasonal Hampshire produce.

"We have a packed food festival programme that will delight visitors of all ages and tastes."

Best in country

HAMPSHIRE: The communications team at Hampshire Fire and Rescue Service (HFRS) is celebrating being named the best in the UK.

The team were presented with the UK Public Sector Communications (PSC) Award for Large In-house Communications Team of the Year at Arsenal's Emirates Stadium last Monday.

Faster tickets

BASINGSTOKE: Video Ticket Machines (VTM) are now available at Basingstoke Train Station as part of £50million of investment being delivered across the South West Trains network.

A total of 91 VTMs have been installed across different stations in the region, with 84 'quick buy' ticket machines now being put in at the busiest stations, including Basingstoke.

The network is the first of its kind in the country, with the VTMs including a 'Help Me' button, which passengers can press to be connected to the dedicated contact centre in Basingstoke for assistance.

Customer service director for South West Trains, Arthur Pretorius, said: "We are delighted to be rolling out the UK's first integrated and large scale network of the machines."

'Jail terms for those who assault police'

MEMBERS of the public that assault police officers should be handed a mandatory prison sentence, says the chairman of Hampshire Police Federation.

By Christian Wilson

The latest statistics compiled by the federation relating to abuse suffered by police officials show that 1,118 acts of violence were recorded in the county between April last year and March.

Just over 300 of the incidents reported saw Hampshire Constabulary officers having to be treated for injuries after being punched, kicked and having their eyes gouged.

Hampshire Police Federation is one of the leads nationwide in calling for "the reality of policing" to be known by changing the way police assault data is collected.

Chairman John Apter said: "Police officers perform a difficult and dangerous job on behalf of the public, being assaulted is not just part of the job and must never be seen as such.

"I know the work we have started is making a difference.

"Officers feel better supported, equipment is being improved and the issue of assaults on officers is being discussed.

"Despite this, more needs to be done."

Hampshire is one of only three police forces to have taken its data from crime recording systems, as well as from health and safety records – with the county therefore having the second highest number of assaults.

The latest stats, when put into context, amount to three different assaults on officers every day of the year, with 10 taking place on Hampshire officers on July 16 and July 17 alone.

And Mr Apter called for the Government and judicial system to do more to stop police being viewed by the public as "society's punch bags".

He added: "It is important the public see the reality of policing and the level of violence used against our officers.

"I have no doubt that part of the reason some see assaulting a police officer as being acceptable is because of the lenient sentences often imposed.

"I want to see mandatory prison sentences for anybody who assaults a public official."

• Hampshire Police Federation chairman John Apter has called for stronger sentences for those who assault officers

Residents to benefit from £1.35m funding

RESIDENTS from Basingstoke and Deane are set to be the biggest beneficiaries of a county council investment in adult learning.

About 15,000 adults across Hampshire will feel the benefit of the £1.35million investment for adult and community learning provision starting from September.

Of this funding, Basingstoke and Deane has been allocated £180,995, with the money set to be split between a range of different means to help people who are looking for employment.

The Adult and Community Learning programme will provide £500,000 as part of 'Hampshire Works' – to put on free courses for residents over 19 who are in receipt of Job Seeker's Allowance or Employment Support Allowance

A total of £500,000 will also be spent on 'Hampshire Thrives', which provides free English and maths courses for those without GCSEs.

And £350,000 will be used for the council's 'Hampshire Learns' programme, to encourage wider participation in adult learning.

Those in receipt of work-related benefits, Income Support or a State Pension will be eligible for a 50 per cent discount on fees.

Basingstoke buddies batter cycling target

A MAMMOTH cycle challenge organised by three Basingstoke friends has smashed its fundraising target to smithereens, it was revealed last week.

By Christian Wilson

Gary Livingstone, Craig Killick and Rob Jones completed one of the tests on their respective bucket lists earlier this month when they cycled from John O'Groats to Land's End (JOGLE).

The trio, and Rob's brother Bernie, from Chester, got on their bikes and took on the entire 1,000-mile trip between July 2 and 12, in a bid to raise £20,000 for the Ark Cancer Centre Charity.

But after more than doubling their target to raise £47,700 for the Basingstoke charity, Kempshott resident Craig admitted to being "overjoyed" to achieve the impressive feat.

He said: "There was a massive sense of relief when we arrived at Land's End.

"It is an amazing individual and team achievement, and it will take some time for it all to sink in. I am overjoyed that we have done this."

Graeme Bone also cycled four of the first seven legs, before the group were joined for the final three days of the journey from Basingstoke by Mark Dolby, Andy Coles, Claire Killick, Simon Finch, Barry Fuller, Anna O'Shea Collier, Laura Griffin and Ian Fuller.

• The team of cyclists celebrate after reaching the end of their 1,000-mile trip to Land's End

Craig added: "It was very tough for all of us, whichever part of the journey each person took part in.

"We are delighted to have achieved our goal and are so grateful for the great support that has resulted in the team raising more than double the £20,000 target that we had hoped to collect for such a good cause."

Ark Cancer Centre Charity is aiming to raise £5million to help fund the creation of Basingstoke and Deane's first unique cancer treatment centre.

Director of fundraising for the charity, Mark Jones, joined the riders for the whole of their JOGLE journey across Britain as a support driver, and was quick to thank them for putting in the blood, sweat and tears to get across the line.

He said: "It was a privilege and honour to accompany the JOGLE16 riders on this journey.

"All of the cyclists put in an incredible amount of hard work."

Top-20 for Miss Basingstoke

BASINGSTOKE'S Nicola Ascroft had a couple of days to remember last week as she claimed a top-20 finish at the Miss England grand final.

The reigning Miss Basingstoke claimed a place at the showpiece in Southport on Wednesday and Thursday after being crowned Charity Queen at last month's semi-final in Nottinghamshire.

Nicola has raised £6,230.38 for charity Beauty with a Purpose over the past 12 months – taking her grand total for her two years as Miss Basingstoke to £11,000.

And even though the overall award went to Miss Preston, Elizabeth Grant, the 22-year-old was quick to express her pride at making it onto the final 49-girl shortlist.

• Nicola Ascroft

She said: "This past week has been once of the best experiences of my life.

"I am extremely proud, and many other emotions, to have been picked as one of the judges' choices to be in the top 20 girls out of the 22,000 that applied this year.

"Thank you to everyone who believed in me; I will be forever grateful for all of the support you have given me throughout my whole journey."

Image released

BASINGSTOKE: Police have released CCTV footage of a man wanted in connection with an assault in Basingstoke.

An unnamed 26-year-old man was walking home along the pedestrian area outside the Crown Heights block of flats on July 2 when he was attacked.

The incident, which took place between 4am and 5am, left the victim with significant facial injuries.

Hampshire Constabulary has now released pictures of the suspect with the man described as white, aged between 30 and 40, of average build, and bald on the top of his head, with short, dark hair on the sides.

Job figure boost

BASINGSTOKE: The number of unemployed people across Basingstoke has decreased by five per cent over the last month.

Figures released by the Office for National Statistics (ONS) revealed that 650 residents claimed Jobseekers Allowance in June, compared to 685 the month before.

Hero cop misses out on top award

A BASINGSTOKE police officer that put her personal safety at risk while on the job has narrowly missed out on a prestigious policing award.

By Christian Wilson

Hampshire Constabulary's PC Vikki Sharpe suffered a broken hand and damage to her ribs, back and shoulder after being assaulted while trying to arrest a drunk driver.

The roads policing officer stopped Innocent Fowung, of Deedmore Road in Coventry, at the side of the M3 near Basingstoke, after she spotted him driving erratically on June 18, 2014.

Fowung then began to act violently after she tried to breathalyse him, before putting her through a 15-minute assault at the side of the busy motorway as she attempted to arrest him.

Despite this, PC Sharpe managed to handcuff one of the driver's hands to his steering wheel, and still cling on to the vehicle after he started the engine and rammed her into the side of her police car.

Thankfully, other officers managed to arrest Fowung further down the road, and he was then handed consecutive sentences of 12 and 10 months last year.

PC Sharpe's dedication to the job was recognised earlier this month when she was nominated for an award at the Police Federation's Police Bravery Awards at the Dorchester Hotel in London.

And after missing out on the accolade at the ceremony on July 14, PC Sharpe modestly downplayed her actions, claiming it was "just natural instinct".

She said: "It's what we do every day, we don't think about it, it's what we're paid to do and that's what we do.

"It was just natural instinct, it was my job, [and] it was what I needed to do. I gave it no real thought at all to be honest."

PC Sharpe met with new Home Secretary Amber Rudd and Police Minister Mike Penning at the event, as well as visiting 10 Downing Street.

Hampshire Police Federation chairman John Apter also attended the awards, and insisted that the Basingstoke and Whitchurch-covering officer was "a credit" to the force.

He said: "Vikki has never considered herself brave, she says she was just doing her job.

"This humble response is typical of police officers who shy away from praise.

"Although Vikki didn't scoop the overall award, she is very much a winner in our eyes.

"She is a great officer who is a credit to the constabulary."

Cyclist has phone stolen during ride

A CYCLIST had his phone stolen by a motorist as he rode along a Basingstoke street last week.

The 43-year-old victim was cycling along Pack Lane, towards Oakley, at around 4.45am on Tuesday when a car pulled up alongside him.

A passenger in the vehicle then reached out and grabbed the man's white and gold iPhone 6, which was in a holder strapped to his arm while he rode.

The impact caused the cyclist to fall off his bike and onto the verge, with the car then speeding away towards Oakley.

He didn't see the face of the person responsible, although the victim, who did not sustain any injuries from the incident, has described the passenger's arm as white with a sun tan.

The car used in the robbery is understood to have been a faded old-style Ford Fiesta, with distinctive black wheel arches and modified wheels, while it has been described as having a loud exhaust and a rattling engine.

Detective Constable Jo Martindale, of Basingstoke CID, said: "We believe that the offenders may be from the local area, so we would like to hear from anyone who recognises the description of this distinctive vehicle."

Full steam ahead for Didcot Railway Centre

Now recognised as being one of the leading centres of its type, Didcot Railway Centre first opened as a visitor attraction in 1967.

The Railway Centre recreates the golden age of the Great Western Railway with a fine collection of over 20 steam locomotives, many housed in the original engine shed, and a collection of passenger coaches and freight wagons

The centre now offers a wide range of features for visitors to enjoy as they wander around the site, including the original main building of the 1932 Engine Shed.

Amongst the most popular events are the centre's Steamdays, which provide visitors with a chance to ride in coaches pulled by a restored locomotive.

Summer steamdays, when there will one or more locomotives in steam for visitors to travel behind, are on all weekends through to 4 September, all Wednesdays from 27 July to 31 August, and Monday 29 August.

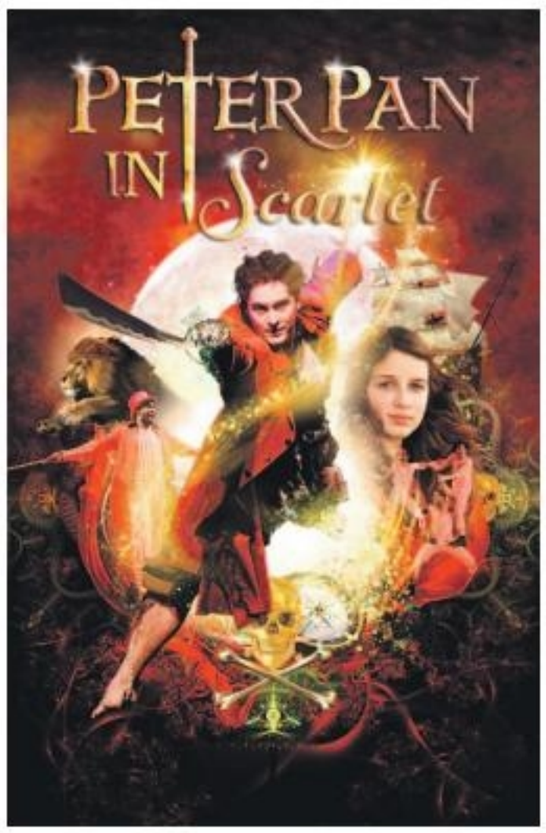
Peter Pan In Scarlet

This summer marks the return of the Oxford Playhouse to middle scale producing with the world premiere of the stage adaptation of Peter Pan in Scarlet, the best-selling official sequel to JM Barrie's Peter Pan, written by Carnegie Medal and three times Whitbread Children's Book Award winner Geraldine McCaughrean.

The book was originally commissioned by Great Ormond Street Hospital Children's Charity to whom Barrie gifted all rights to the character and original writings in 1929. The novel will be brought thrillingly to life by director and adapter Theresa Heskins, Artistic Director of the New Vic Theatre, and an award-winning team including Aerial Director, Vicki Amedume, Artistic Director of circus theatre company Upswing, composer and Musical Director, James Atherton and designer Liz Cooke.

It's 1929, and Wendy and the Lost Boys have all grown up when strange dreams begin to spill out of Neverland. When souvenirs of Neverland appear in their beds – cutlasses, mermaids & war paint – the Lost Boys realise that something must be wrong, and their friend Peter Pan needs their help. Wendy and the Lost Boys squeeze into their own children's clothes, shrink down to their former sizes and, armed only with fairy dust, fly back to Neverland for one last adventure. There are thrills, spills and much swash-buckling derring-do in this action packed spectacular as Tootles, Slightly, Wendy, John and Peter fight wild animals, quarrel with fairies, climb treacherous mountains and encounter curious characters like Ravello, a circus ringmaster and Fireflyer, the grumpy fairy.



Geraldine McCaughrean has written more than 160 books and her work has been translated into 45 languages worldwide. Her work includes many retellings of classic stories for children including The Odyssey, El Cid, The Canterbury Tales and Moby Dick. In 2004, to coincide with Peter Pan's centenary Great Ormond Street Hospital Children's Charity launched a competition to find the author of a sequel. McCaughrean won the competition, after submitting a synopsis and a sample chapter. Peter Pan in Scarlet was released internationally on 5 October 2006 and has since been translated into 37 languages in 55 countries. McCaughrean has written many other children's fiction books including The Kite Rider,The White Darkness, Plundering Paradise and The Middle of Nowhere. Her historical novels for adults include: The Maypole, Fire's Astonishment, Vainglory, Lovesong and The Ideal Wife.

WIN Breakfast at Tiffany's tickets for the Theatre Royal Haymarket

BREAKFAST at Tiffany's, the classic tale of Holly Golightly written by Truman Capote and so memorably portrayed by Audrey Hepburn in the iconic 1961 film, is being given a new lease of life as a stage play with music in a sparkling, sophisticated production starring the multi award-winning Pixie Lott as Holly.

Adapted by Pulitzer Prize finalist and Tony and Olivier Award-winning playwright Richard Greenberg and directed by Nikolai Foster, this tale of vivacious, good-time girl Holly Golightly and her fantastical existence in 1940s New York City, is told through the eyes of a young writer named Fred, played by Matt Barber (Downton Abbey), who is completely fascinated by this exquisite extrovert who every woman wants to be, and every man wants to be with.

With memorable songs from the era, this stylish production is set to capture the hearts of audiences and sparkle like a diamond in a Tiffany's window.

Following a tour of the UK and Ireland since March, Breakfast at Tiffany's will have a 12 week run at the Theatre Royal Haymarket.

Sudoku

The objective is to fill a 9×9 grid with digits so that each column, each row, and each of the nine 3×3 sub-grids that compose the grid (also called "boxes", "blocks", "regions", or "sub-squares") contains all of the digits from 1 to 9. The puzzle setter provides a partially completed grid, which for a well-posed puzzle has a unique solution.

Band ready for festival debut

By James Richings

A MIXTURE of original tracks and cover tunes will be on offer when Kindred Spirit perform at this year's Fleet Beer Festival on Saturday, August 6.

Kindred Spirit are made up of Elaine Samuels (lead vocals and guitarist) Gavin Jones (electric violin and backing vocals), Emily Nash/Catherine Dimmock (flute, saxophone and backing vocals), Mike Hislop (bass guitar and backing vocals) and Alan Barwise/Chris Goode on drums, and will be performing at the festival for the first time.

But this doesn't worry Elaine though, as the lead singer is confident that their debut set at one of Fleet's biggest events will go down a storm.

"The musicians are all people I have discovered over time," she revealed to the Observer.

"I began as a solo performer in the '90s and there have been lots of band members who I've played with since I started playing professionally, but we recently had some changes in personnel.

"The current band members have to share their roles with several players of the same instrument in order for the band to be available for gigs.

• Kindred Spirit

"Mostly, I actively look for the instrument players I'm interested in - both in person and online - and then interview and audition them."

Named after the term 'kindred spirit' came up in conversation back in the '90s, they have seen their fair share of success with the group travelling to numerous festivals and events all over the country.

But despite three members of the band battling their musical endeavours with their day jobs, the group hope their covers of popular tracks from the likes of The Eagles, Fleetwood Mac, Pink Floyd and many more, along with their original tunes, will hopefully inspire a new generation of musicians.

"In general these days, people hear so much recorded music that it can be quite a surprise to see real instruments played.

"Live music also brings people together in a very positive way."

Tickets cost £7.

Lost Roberts

LIVE MUSIC: Lost Roberts will be performing at The Faulkner's Arms in Fleet on Friday, July 29.

The group, who have been performing together for the last 25 years, will perform a number of popular blues tunes as well as a few originals.

The free gig starts at 9pm.

Animated fun

FILM: This year's blockbuster 'Kung Fu Panda 3' will be screened at the Tadley Community Centre on Wednesday, August 3.

Starring Jack Black, Bryan Cranston, Seth Rogen, Dustin Hoffman and Angelina Jolie, the film sees Po (Black) realise he was adopted with Li Shan (Cranston) being his father.

Tickets cost £1.50 and the film starts at 2pm.

Blues Brothers

LIVE MUSIC: A Blue Brothers tribute act will take place at The Academy in Basingstoke on Saturday, July 30.

The West Ham Lane venue will see the Birmingham Blues Brothers perform classic tunes such as 'Soul Man' and 'She Caught the Katy' get blasted out this weekend.

Tickets cost £10 for members or £12 on the door. It starts at 7pm.

My car had been taken to three different repair centres which was suffering from low power none of them diagnosed the problem. I took it to these guys for a remap and full exhaust in the hopes it would fix it. It was better but Byron still thought it wasn't right so spent another couple of hours diagnosing it!

He didn't charge me extra and even finished after they should of closed. You just don't get that kind of service these days. Amazing! Cheers, Clive Baldwin

Excellent service! Very polite and great value for money prices! I will recommend to friends and family. If you need your car repaired at the right price don't look any further. Hopkins source: Yell

Great service from the whole of the Fast Fit team. They know what they are talking about and are happy to help with any query.

I wanted something activated on my car that had not been done at the factory. A dealer wanted upwards of £100 to do the job, I contacted Fast Fit and they have the same Dealer Software. Done the job quick and for a third of the price! These guys definitely know what they're talking about and I would recommend them to anyone! Chris H

Drum talents of Lee Aaron

THE Lee Aaron Band will be showing Fleet why they are one of the most popular covers bands in the south when they arrive at the Fox & Hounds on Friday, July 29 and The Faulkners Arms on Saturday, August 6.

By James Richings

With Lee on the drums, the 24-year-old will be joined alongside his trusty band mates in Nick Andrew on the guitar, Dick St Clair on bass and dad Barry Aaron at the two gigs.

However, being in a band to perform popular tunes from the likes of Queen, David Bowie and The Beatles to name a few did not come easy, as Lee is on the autistic spectrum and has suffered from OCD, ADHE and Tourette's.

But after discovering his passion for drums at the age of eight, Lee has very much found his solace, and hopes he can continue to drum for years ahead.

"It was tough when I was a kid because I just didn't fit in," he said.

"However, when I started playing the drums people took notice of me.

"I was accepted and now I can't imagine doing anything else.

"My mum and dad always told me that I was special because I wasn't like the rest of them.

"They told me that the problems I had were not bad, they were good and I should use them and it was because of them that I would do good and they were right".

The band are known for being versatile with the songs that they play, with the group's repertoire ranging from classic rock songs to slow ballads.

And with the group regularly using audience interaction to make sure their crowds are getting a proper show, it will not be a surprise if the crowd go home happy once both gigs are over.

But for Barry, the chance to perform with his son, who has performed all over the world including in the James Bond Tribute Band, is something that he will cherish forever.

"Lee is an inspiration to all that meet him, and he is an extremely likable young man," Barry said.

"He has shown to all that regardless of our individual problems we can harness them and make them work to our advantage and lead better and more productive lives."

Both gigs start at 9pm and are free.

• The Lee Aaron Band, made up of (from left) Barry Aaron, Dick St Clair, Lee Aaron and Nick Andrew, will be performing in Fleet twice in the coming weeks

• Lee Aaron performing in The Maldives last year

Behind the wheel of the powerful Jeep Cherokee 2.2 Multijet 200hp 4WD Auto Limited

Top rate engine but lacks soul

POWER AND EFFICIENCY:
The Cherokee is fitted with the new 2.2 MultiJet II engine that delivers 200 hp at 3500rpm and has a torque rating of 440 Nm at 2500rpm - making it one of their best engines to date.

Top speed comes in around 127mph and it can accelerate from zero to 62mph in around 8.5 seconds. Average combined fuel consumption figure comes in at a decent 49.6mpg with CO2 emissions of 150g/km.

OFF ROAD:
I will steer away from my normal on-road review and talk a little bit about how the Cherokee faired off the tarmac. Actually – It did rather well. It will never beat a Range Rover – but it was pretty good I have to say. Jeep's Active-Drive four-wheel-drive system is very good and did not really struggle in most places off road and I never once got stuck – which is great news.

INTERIOR & TECHNOLOGY
Inside the Jeep looks ok, but I just don't get the sense of feeling cocooned. Yes it's nicely set out – but it just doesn't make me think Wow!

By Anthony Yates

Don't get me wrong – the seating and materials used inside are of a good quality and I would be very happy if I had bought one, but I just feel the Cherokee is missing that little bit of 'soul' - the feeling is a bit like thinking you are going on a date with Salma Hayek and when you arrive you find out that actually you have been misinformed and your new host will be the one and only Dot Cotton.

Some of the standard equipment on the Cherokee Limited includes; keyless entry, rain sensitive wipers, automatic HiD Bi-Xenon headlights, cruise control, next generation front airbags, dual zone climate control, leather interior, nine speakers with subwoofer (Alpine), Uconnect 8.4" DAB Radio with integrated Bluetooth with USB.

SAFETY:
The Cherokee also has a five-star Euro NCAP safety rating which makes it class leading among the mid-size SUV market. My test car was also fitted with the option of the 'Technology Group' pack. This pack includes advanced brake assist, lane departure warning plus, full speed forward collision warning plus, adaptive cruise control, as well as mirror with blind-spot monitoring function, and a rear parallel parking assist system.

TO SUM UP:
The Cherokee is a decent 4X4 with the attraction of its high specification levels and a decent ride that is quiet and refined– I just wish Jeep could give the Cherokee a little bit more 'soul'.

• Price: (from) £41,610 OTR as tested – including fitted options.

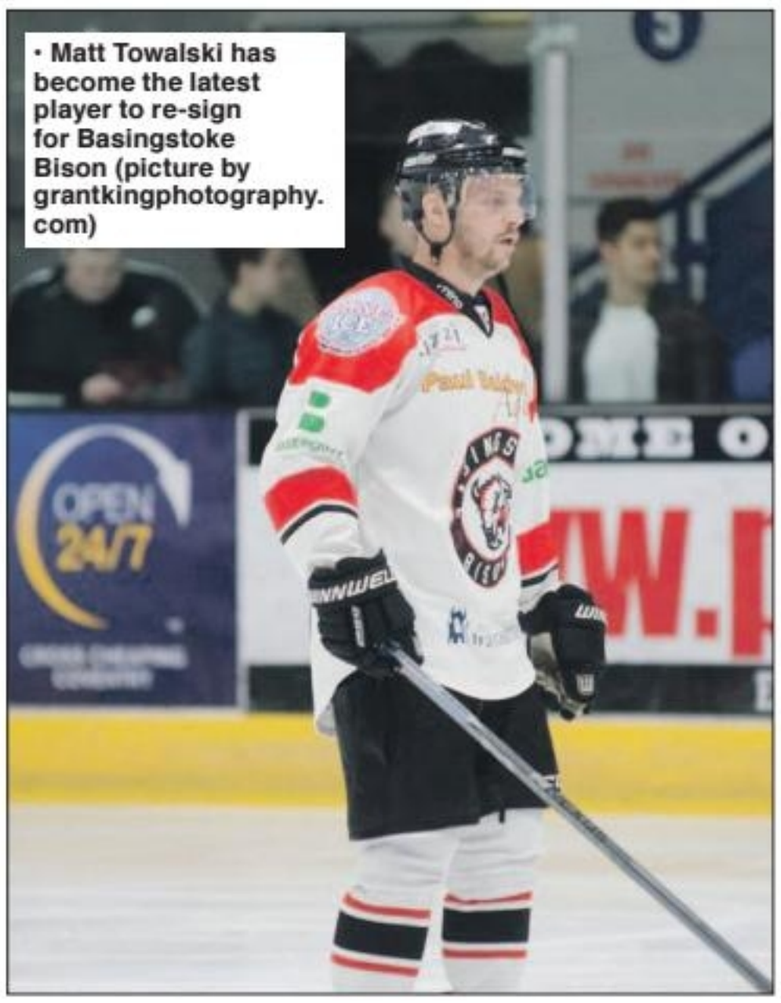
Lucky number 13 as Towalski signs again



• Matt Towalski has become the latest player to re-sign for Basingstoke Bison (picture by grantkingphotography.com)

By Christian Wilson

MATT Towalski has been rewarded for helping Basingstoke Bison in their hour of need by being handed a new deal at the club.

The experienced British forward became the 13th member of last season's English Premier League (EPL) winning roster to re-sign with the Herd last week.

Towalski arrived at Planet Ice as a much-needed Christmas present for Stampede fans just before the festive period last year, at a time when Bison were suffering an injury crisis.

And after playing a key squad role in dragging Basingstoke across the line to claim their first league title in 23 years, the 32-year-old backed his teammates to repeat the feat this time around.

"I love playing ice hockey and never expected to win another league title at this stage of my career," said Towalski.

"I really enjoyed being on the team last season as they were such a great bunch of guys.

"We look on paper stronger than last year, but there are a lot of good teams in this league, which means you have to turn up and play your game every night if you want to win."

Towalski scored five and assisted three more from his 32 games after joining from Bracknell Bees, while he also passed the 600 EPL appearance mark, following spells at Milton Keynes Lightning and Slough Jets.

He also previously represented Great Britain at both under-18 and under-20 level – winning a gold medal in 2004 in the World Championships in the process.

And after already persuading forward Aaron Connolly, Tomas Karpov, Ciaran Long, Daniel Lackey, Grant Rounding, Rene Jarolin and Alan Lack to all return, Herd head coach Doug Sheppard was delighted to add another member of the offensive unit.

He said: "Matt brings to the team a wealth of experience.

"He proved last year he is very good on the PK and can slot into any line."

Phillips' knock not enough for Basingstoke

BASINGSTOKE and North Hants' mini-winning run was brought to an end at the hands of the league leaders despite a valiant batting innings on Saturday.

William Phillips hit a battling 89 not out as the Bountymen wracked up 238 runs at the home of Southern Premier Division 1 table toppers Andover.

But this response wasn't to be enough as the tally fell just short of Andover's score of 248-8 from their allocation of 50 overs to stop Basingstoke claiming a hat-trick of wins.

The visitors won the toss but elected to field first – a decision they would go on to rue as opener Storm Green (51) and James O'Gorman (47) starred with the bat to help Andover to 169-5.

Only the bowling of Ryan Connor (4-56) stopped the tide after that as, but for a 28-run showing from Matt Knight in the mid-order, the hosts slowed.

Scores of 30 and 29 from openers Daniel Belcher and Craig Williamson then helped Basingstoke get their innings off to a decent start, before Phillips arrived at the crease to make his telling contribution.

But despite an impressive 38-run knock from Bradley Neal from 40 balls, the Bountymen then ran out of gas to just fall short.

Basingstoke will be looking for a return to winning ways when they are next in action at home to Totton and Eling on Saturday afternoon.

Racer raring to go for BTCC return

ROB Collard will look to retake the British Touring Car Championship (BTCC) lead when racing resumes at Snetterton in Norfolk this weekend.

The Hook driver had a superb first half to the season – collecting two wins overall at Donington Park and last time out at Croft.

That meet in North Yorkshire took place over a month ago on June 19, with Collard's 50th career win in motorsport seeing him close West Surrey Racing (WSR) teammate Sam Tordoff's lead to just 12 points at the halfway mark.

Rewind back even further to May 8 at the 47-year-old's home track at Thruxton however, and he actually sat at the top of the pile, although Collard refused to think too far ahead about claiming a first BTCC title.

He said: "It feels like an age since the last race at Croft and everybody's had plenty of time to think about how to approach the second half of the season.

"In previous years we'd talk about some tracks being better than others for the BMW, but this year the 125i M Sport has been strong everywhere.

"We're in a very strong position as a team at the moment, but we can't really think too far ahead in terms of the championship.

"We just have to take each race as it comes."

Challenge games

ICE HOCKEY: Basingstoke Bison will once again line up against fierce rivals Guildford Flames in September as part of their pre-season schedule.

The two sides regularly face each other before the start of the season, and the same will happen this year with Bison hosting on September 3 at 6.30pm, and a tie taking place at the Spectrum the following evening at 6pm.

But in a change to last year's schedule, the Herd will also face a double-header with the Swindon Wildcats.

Bison will travel to Swindon to play at 7.45pm on August 31, and then host their EPL rivals at 7.30pm on September 7.

Fourth major

GOLF: Justin Rose will hope for better luck than he's had so far this season when he competes in the final major of the year, starting today.

The north Hampshire golfer goes into the PGA Championships in Springfield, New Jersey, after failing to challenge in the last two majors.

Rose's chances at The Open Championship in Royal Troon were ruined two weeks ago by the weather, while he fared significantly worse at the US Open as a back injury saw him miss the cut.

Hook on top

CRICKET: Hook and Newnham Basics' promotion aspirations were handed a boost on Saturday as they claimed an impressive win at Portsmouth.

A fine unbeaten knock of 81 from Ben Thane led Hook to a five-wicket victory in the Southern League Division 1 tie, after removing the hosts for just 117.

In Division 2, Hartley Wintney didn't find life so easy as, despite a sensational 115-run innings from opener Tom Garwood to help them finish on 334-9, incredibly they still lost at home to Hambledon.

Openers Mbulelo Nkomo (133 not out), George Marshall (99) and Indy Chakrabarti (60) did most of the damage as Hambledon passed the score to win by five wickets.

NEW LOOK TOWN WARM UP WITH WIN

• Defender Robert Atkinson, featured in action against Reading U21s, is one of five new players to sign with the club over the last eight days (picture by Daniel Murphy)

BASINGSTOKE Town fans had double reasons to be happy over the weekend as they earned an impressive win in their penultimate home game of pre-season.

By Christian Wilson

Goals from George Bennett, Aaron Jarvis and trialist Jordace Holder-Spooner handed 'Stoke a 3-1 win over Reading U21s at the Ark Cancer Charity Stadium on Saturday.

And just hours later manager Terry Brown announced three new signings in former Fulham U21 striker Aaron Redford, midfielder Michael Atkinson, and his brother Robert, who plays in defence.

This came after Alex Tokarczyk's arrival from Scottish Championship side Falkirk three days earlier.

And Brown then took his number of new signings up to 15 yesterday, as left back Tamille Roache also joined from Barnet to aid Basingstoke's preparations for life in the Evo-Stik League Southern as a full-time side.

After stretching their unbeaten run in pre-season to four games against Reading, Town's new look side appear to be gelling well on the field, as they try to bounce straight back to the National League South.

They started the game in perfect fashion as, after soaking up pressure from the visitors, a great run on the counter-attack from Robert Atkinson found George Hallahan, who was brought down to earn an early penalty.

Fellow summer signing George Bennett then coolly slotted home the resulting spot kick into the bottom corner to put his side 1-0 up.

After that success, Basingstoke continued in the same vein by allowing Reading to dominate possession, while constantly offering the threat on the breakaway.

And after Richie Whittingham forced a save from visiting keeper Joe Tapping, Jarvis doubled Town's lead from close range just before half time, following superb work from Marcus Johnson-Schuster.

Young forward Jarvis was then at the centre of things once again 10 minutes after the break, as he jinked into the box before chipping to the back stick for Holder-Spooner to head home.

Basingstoke then did well to close the game out, with the only blot on their copybook coming right at the end, as a lazy tackle from Joe Gater handed Reading a penalty, which Andrija Novakovich duly buried.

Brown's side played their final home match last night against Gosport as the Observer went to press.
